Passport & visa information

A passport and visa are required for U.S. citizens. Brazilian visas must be obtained in advance; there are no airport visas and immigration authorities will refuse entry to Brazil to anyone not possessing a valid visa. All Brazilian visas, regardless of the length of validity, must initially be used within 90 days of the issuance date or will no longer be valid. Americans reentering Brazil must be able to show an entry stamp in their passport proving that the visa was issued within 90 days; otherwise they will not be allowed reentry.

The CDC recommends Yellow Fever vaccination for persons over 9 months of age for travel to all rural areas including Iguazu Falls, and for travel to Brasilia and Belo Horizonte. Cities in jungle areas are considered rural, not urban, in nature.

SALES AND DESTINATION INFORMATION

Hotel Information:

Copacabana Palace

Avenida Atlântica, 1702 - Copacabana Rio de Janeiro

This glamorously elegant Orient-Express landmark has been welcoming such guests as Fred Astaire and the Rolling Stones since it's Art Deco doors swung open in 1923. As one of the finest hotels in Rio de Janeiro, the Copacabana Palace sits serenely overlooking Copacabana Beach. Guests are encouraged to indulge in the magnificent pool and urban sanctuary of the hotel spa; and the hotel's restaurants, which are considered two of Rio's finest, are constantly serving the best local and fine Italian dishes. The haven of comfort continues to the luxurious guest accommodations with their stunning views, fine period furniture and original works of art in each individualized room.

- Perfectly positioned on Copacabana Beach
- In 2011, awarded as South America's and Brazil's Leading Hotel
- Two excellent dining options, onsite spa, tennis court and beach service
- Sophisticated rooms with modern updates like Wi-Fi and iPod docks

Porto Bay Hotel

Avenida Atlântica, 1500 - Copacabana Rio de Janeiro

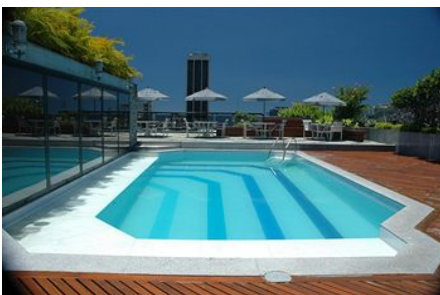

Right on Copacabana beach in the spectacular city of Rio de Janeiro, Porto Bay Rio Internacional offers access to the sensational city and a breathtaking view over the beach right on the doorstep. Look out over Copacabana beach and revitalise yourself while the sea breeze blows your cares away. Enjoy the outdoor rooftop pool, the excellent dining possibilities onsite, and the gym offering panoramic views. And the guest rooms offering comfort and sophistication will offer a harmonious beginning and end to each day.

- The excellent location means local attractions and shopping are close and easily accessible
- In 2008, awarded as Brazil's Leading Hotel
- Equipped with roof-top pool, onsite restaurant, two fantastic bars, and a gym with sauna and relaxation room
- Rooms offering incredible views of the beach, sea or sea-front promenade

Merlin Copacabana

Avenida Princes Isabel, 392 - Copacabana Rio de Janeiro

Located steps away from Brazil's most famous beach, the Merlin Copacabana is near Rio's top shopping and entertainment possibilities. The hotel's sophisticated architecture and finely decorated rooms ensure its three star categories will be easily recognizable. The piano bar and Camelot Restaurant offer ambience and entertainment, and the top-floor Excalibur Pool offers views of Copacabana Beach for those relaxing around it. The rooms of the Merlin Copacabana offer spacious comfort and the gracious staff create a friendly and welcoming environment.

- Located near the beach, shopping and dining options
- Four star accommodations

- Restaurant and bar onsite, as well as top-floor pool for exercise and relaxation
- Spacious and simply designed rooms
